THIS IS IMPOSSIBLE...

...WHAT? NOW WE HAVE TO INVESTIGATE
THEIR HOUSE.

A cartoon illustration of a man with a large orange turban and a black robe with orange trim. He has a grey beard and is gesturing with his right hand while speaking. He stands behind a table covered with a purple cloth. On the table are several books, a small white figurine, and a brown cup. Two children, a girl with black hair and a boy with black hair, are seated at the table, looking up at the man. The background is a solid yellow color.
